

MILITARY OFFICERS' WIVES CLUB BYLAWS
(Ratified March 2013)

ARTICLE I: NAME

The name of this non-profit organization shall be the Military Officers' Wives' Club (MOWC) of Greater New Orleans, Louisiana (chartered as Military Officers' Wives Club) and will be referred to herein as the "Club".

ARTICLE II: PURPOSE

Section 1. OBJECTIVES

- A. To hold social functions for Club members and guests which stimulate new friendships and foster the growth of existing relationships.
- B. To raise funds to support the works of community organizations chosen by the club.
- C. To aid and assist in community work.

Section 2. KREWE OF CAMAN

Each female member of the Club automatically acquires membership in the Krewe of CAMAN. The Krewe of CAMAN is the social and non-profit Carnival Organization of the Military Officers' Wives Club, as officially registered on September 18, 1985, pursuant to Louisiana Revised Statutes 51:281 or 9:3401 (1950), in the Conveyance Office, Orleans Parish, Louisiana, and recorded in Trade Name Book 10, Folio 66 (as Successor in Interest to the Krewe of NOW, recorded in Trade Name Book 9, Folio 95 on December 6, 1978.)

- A. The CAMAN Ball is the Krewe of CAMAN's annual Carnival Season event conducted by the MOWC. The CAMAN Ball receives logistical support from military commands around the world. Local military support is primarily provided by the Commander, Marine Forces Reserve/Marine Forces North; the Commander, Navy Reserve Forces Command; and the Commander, Eighth Coast Guard District and Commander, Task Force 189.8. Continued military support exists at the pleasure of the Commanders and may be reviewed by each new commander following change of command.
- B. Responsibility for planning, coordinating, and conducting the CAMAN Ball resides with the CAMAN Ball Captain. The Captain is assisted by the CAMAN Ball Lieutenant of the Captain's choosing.

ARTICLE III: GENERAL MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The General membership consists of Regular Members and Associate Members.

A. Regular Members. A regular member must be a current spouse or former spouse who is a member in good standing prior to a divorce, or a widow/er of a commissioned or warrant officer of the Army, Navy, Coast Guard, Marine Corps, or Air Force, active, reserve, or retired.

B. Associate Members.

1. An associate member must be a current or former spouse, who is a member in good standing prior to a divorce, or a widow/er, of a federal government service employee with the rating of GS-07/NAF equivalent or above; a federal government employee with the rating of GS-07/NAF equivalent or above; or a military veteran as a commissioned or warrant officer of the Army, Navy, Coast Guard, Marine Corps, or Air Force, active, reserve, or retired.

2. Associate members shall be entitled to all privileges of the Club except holding the elective office of President.

Section 2. Membership applications are submitted annually. The benefits of membership run with the calendar year coinciding with the Executive Board's term, 1 June until 31 May of the following year. The above membership qualifications must be met annually.

ARTICLE IV: DUES & FEES

Section 1. Annual Dues. The Executive Board establishes the amount of annual membership dues at the first Executive Board meeting of the year.

Section 2. Fees. Reservations for luncheons shall be paid by members. Members are obligated to pay such fees for themselves and their guests. Members may only avoid this obligation by timely cancellation. Cancellations must be made in a timely manner or by the deadline published in the newsletter.

Section 3. Members are responsible for any fees incurred on checks returned for insufficient funds.

ARTICLE V: MEETINGS

- Section 1. Regular meetings (social functions) are held at the discretion of the Executive Board.
- Section 2. Executive Board Meetings
- A. Executive Board meetings are generally held at least two weeks prior to any regular meeting. An Executive Board Quorum (i.e., greater than 50% of eligible voting Executive Board members) must be present before any Executive Board meeting may be commenced. In other words, no Executive Board meeting will start until an Executive Board Quorum is present.
  - B. At its sole discretion, the Executive Board may cancel, terminate, limit, postpone, add, extend, or reschedule Executive Board meetings.
  - C. Executive Board meetings are open to all members.
    - 1. Discussion or debate should not exceed the scope of the motion as defined in the Executive Board Agenda.
    - 2. Members must supply a written summary of their motion in advance (with the appropriate number of copies). Members who wish to submit a motion must contact the President or Parliamentarian prior to the Executive Board meeting and ask to be added to the Agenda.
- Section 3. Decisions requiring a vote of the Membership regarding the bylaws shall be made by a majority of the members.

ARTICLE VI: ORGANIZATION

- Section 1. Officers
- A. Officers of the Club must be General Members and shall consist of the President, Vice-President, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, and Treasurer. An Associate Member may hold any office excluding President.
  - B. Officers are nominated each April, elected and installed in May.
    - 1. Officers are elected by majority vote of the eligible General Members in attendance at the May Executive Board Meeting.
    - 2. Officers assume their official duties at the close of the May Executive Board Meeting.
    - 3. All reports must be turned over to the new Executive Board at the May Executive Board Meeting.
- Section 2. Appointed Positions
- A. Those holding appointed positions must be General Members.

- B. Appointments are made by the President, or other appropriate party, for a term of one MOWC Executive Board Calendar Year.

ARTICLE VII: NOMINATIONS and ELECTIONS

- A. The Parliamentarian chairs the Nominating Committee, with two or more volunteer members. If no volunteer members are available, the President shall appoint two members.
- B. The Nominating Committee presents a slate of nominees at the April Executive Board meeting. Additional candidates may be nominated from the floor. The names will be published in the April newsletter. Members may submit additional names to the Parliamentarian prior to the May Executive Board meeting.
- C. All General Members present at the May Executive Board Meeting are eligible—but not required—to vote in the Executive Board election.
  - 1. If a member chooses not to vote on a slate or individual position, they have “opted-out.”
  - 2. “Opting out” means that the member will be considered absent for voting purposes.
  - 3. If there is only one nominee for each office, the President requests a motion from the floor that the slate be elected.
  - 4. If there are multiple nominees, the Parliamentarian will distribute ballots and count votes. Majority vote—i.e., greater than 50% of present, eligible, voting General Members—is required for elected positions.
- D. A vacancy occurring in any office shall be filled by a majority vote of the Members of the Executive Board. In case a vacancy occurs in the office of the President, the Vice-President shall assume the duties of the President. If, however, the Vice President is an Associate Member then a new election must be held for the office of President.
